Marlins Cry a Phishing Story (Paperback)

By Casey Tennyson Swann

Cutting Edge Communications, Inc., United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Marlins Cry A Phishing Story, The Digital Damnation of Civilized Society, is a gripping novel exposing the potent potential of peril for individuals, caused by spyware on a single phone, and for a society, through electronic espionage of major entities. The big fish of the business world put out a battle cry for cyber security in this poignant book. The story softens the fear factor with a spiritual message of hope. The story takes place marlin fishing on a boat in the Bahamas, with a main character, a writer, who is victimized by spyware. She relives her terror daydreaming on the boat. The boat owner, her PR firm client, is being attacked by corporate electronic espionage that threatens demise for the whole country. The boat captain, and several other characters, all receive the plight of the two victims with varying degrees of interest, mostly indifference. The story outlines a wake up call for America to protect itself, because we are all connected, starting with responsibility of each individual who uses a phone or computer. The novel is packed with useful...
