

What's Important: A Roadmap for Loving God (Paperback)

By Tom Malone

iUniverse, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Many young people in this fast-paced, wired, hectic age do not take the time to contemplate their need for God, the value of God's love, and their need to return that love. Without God at the core of their lives, they lack the moral code they will need as they are faced with important decisions. The movie The Passion of the Christ shows us in graphic detail what's important. The message of this film is that Jesus' agonizing torment and torturous death had a purpose: to demonstrate to us the depth of His love and to impress on us how much God is offended by sin. Young viewers are deeply affected by this story; after seeing it, many are returning to God. This book is a roadmap for that journey back. This roadmap, with God as its destination, will guide you, the young person, on how to live your life, how to treat other people, how to make decisions concerning right and wrong, and how to deal with the problems in this modern age, which are especially challenging to the young.
