Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Progress, the Law of the Missionary Work: A Sermon Preached in Rochester, 1843, Before the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, at Their Thirty-Fourth Annual Meeting Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before. When this service, by another s relinquishing it, was unexpectedly devolved on me, I too should most gladly have declined it, on account of the imperfect state of my health, had there been any one to whom I was at liberty to transfer it. And there was another reason which might well have led me to shrink from the duty of this hour, were it not that providential calls are designed for those to whom they come. I regard the present occasion as of very great sacredness, and as imposing on me one of the gravest responsibilities of my life. The representatives of three thousand churches are assembled to consult together upon the work of giving the gospel to the world.
