Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Set in Plymouth, Massachusetts and steeped in early Colony history, Saints Strangers marks the debut of the Sam Warren series: Part Murder Mystery, Part Chick Lit Romance and Part Early American History Lesson. When a young woman is hanged at Plimoth Plantation just weeks before the Thanksgiving holiday, budding private investigator Sam Warren is determined to prove herself by solving the mystery. But as the bodies pile up and Sam and her hunky friend Milo look for answers, they re drawn into a puzzle with pieces that date back nearly 400 years - and down a path which may lead straight back to Sam. With an irresistibly attractive man, a Bombay kitty, a nosy neighbor and a cranky cop on her team, Sam sets out to stop the killings before the turkey is done. Saints Strangers is a brilliant book; I loved it from the first page to the last.
