Vision Sports Publishing Ltd. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Wimbledon 2014: The Official Story of the Championships, Bob Martin, Wimbledon 2014 is wonderfully recorded in this official annual review of the world's most prestigious tennis tournament. Whether or not Andy Murray can repeat his feat of winning the Men's singles title, The Championships are bound to have more than their fair share of upsets, five set thrillers, glamour and glorious winners as perhaps the greatest generation of players to have graced the hallowed grass do battle once again for the right to call themselves Wimbledon Champion. Wimbledon 2014 covers the tournament in full. Telling the stories that made the fortnight memorable and recounting how Federer, Nadal, Djokovic, Murray, Serena Williams, Wozniacki, Sharapova and the other great players got on in their quest for glory. Written by award-winning tennis writers, and put together by a team based at Wimbledon for the duration of The Championships, Wimbledon 2014 grants the reader exclusive insider access to the tournament with interviews and analysis, opinion and quotes from the stars of the show. It is also packed with glorious and evocative photography by legendary sports photographer Bob Martin's team of award-winning snappers, perfectly recording the drama and atmosphere of those two stunning weeks in London, SW19.
