

Who Gets to Choose? (Paperback)

By T F Barans

Word Wizards, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Presents moral, legal and religious arguments supporting the right of a woman to make her own reproductive choices about her own body. Moral issues note that human life does not begin at conception since both the human egg and human sperm were alive and of the human species (ergo: human life) before conception. Differentiates between being a human life and a human person, which requires something more than merely being alive. Legal issues note that the decision in Roe v Wade (7-2, not even close) was written by a Republican appointee of Richard Nixon based on the intent of the Founders. Abortion was legal in all thirteen original states for almost 50 years after the Declaration. Examines the legal arguments in depth. Religious issues note that the Bible is 100 pro-choice and discusses the religious issues and the fallacies of how conservative religious elements try to claim the Bible says the exact opposite of what the Bible actually says.
