By R K Ryals

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Melissa Wright (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . An exhilarating, all-over-the-place, dark read bursting with light. Because life is everywhere and it's nowhere. It makes absolutely no sense . until it does. Vivacious and outgoing, Amethyst August Nelson is the youngest daughter in a family of six girls. All named after jewels and the months they were born. Being the youngest in an all girl family isn't easy. It sucks. It's hard to stand out in a sea of high heels. So when she meets Archie Leopold Smathers in the fifth grade, he seems like the perfect friend; a guy and an only child. Who could ask for more? Senior year, and they're still best friends. It's been a give and take relationship full of comic book mayhem, video games, and sneaking across lawns. Until an embarrassing experience with the star quarterback has eighteen-year-old Amethyst asking Leo to take her virginity, and it puts a whole new spin on their friendship. Can their friendship survive beyond the boundaries of desire and unexpected revelations? Thursday night dance confessions, a neighborhood...
