By Enright, Anne

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Random House UK | Winner of the Man Booker Prize 2015, the Bord Gáis Energy Irish Book Awards - Eason Novel of the Year 2015 and the Kerry Group Novel of the Year 2016 | The children of Rosaleen Madigan leave the west of Ireland for lives in Dublin, New York and various third-world towns. In her early old age, Rosaleen announces that shes selling the family home and dividing the proceeds, and her adult children return for one last Christmas. From the Booker Prize winning author of THE GATHERING comes a novel of fracture and family, selfishness and compassion. | Shortlisted for the Baileys Women's Prize for Fiction 2016 Shortlisted for the 2015 Costa Novel Award Longlisted for the 2015 Man Booker Prize Winner of the Irish Novel of the Year 2015 Hanna, Dan, Constance and Emmet return to the west coast of Ireland for a final family Christmas in the home their mother is about to sell. As the feast turns to near painful comedy, a last, desperate act from Rosaleen - a woman who doesn't quite know how to love her children - forces them to confront the weight of family ties and the road that brought...
