PALMFUL OF DIAMONDS: THE SAGA OF LIFE LOVE, BASED ON THE MEMOIRS OF A MEDICO (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Palmful of diamonds is the saga of life and love of an Indian psychiatrist born in a foreign land. He was the middle one in a large family. He was twelve when political uncertainty displaced his family forcing them to return to India as refugees. Faced with poverty and unexpected challenges, young Surya developed the attitude of a fighter. His exposure to the dynamic philosophy of Swami Vivekananda molded his character into one of a radical nationalist. This quality coupled with his all round stage talent endeared him to the youth and he emerged as an active student leader. But unknown to them, his personal life was checkered and tearful; destiny placed obstacle after obstacle in his path, testing his moral courage at every step. Hunger had not spared him; it was a painful task keeping it a secret. Upon his confession to his dotting classmate about the realities of his life, she silently walked out on him plunging him into further misery. But his philosophy of life, and his multiple talents stood by him, winning him awards at the national level. During the infamous Emergency of 1975, his political awareness did not allow him to remain a meek spectator. He joined the opposition and vehemently fought against the undemocratic forces. Being disillusioned with society s attitude towards family physicians, he chose to specialize in psychiatry and joined the government Institute to pursue his Master s through the National Board of Examinations. His discovery of organized sex crimes targeting female patients, in the Institute, made him react, once again. But the lobby he pitted himself against was powerful. They subjected him to several threatening and humiliating situations and declared him insane....
