I first heard her sweet, angelical voice in the dark of night, when I lay bathed in my own impending death. Seventeen years later, its not the nightmare she pulled me out of that haunts me, but the glimpse of Happily Ever After she revealed just before disappearing. And there I see her, the girl with the sea-green eyes and angelic voice. My world turns upside down. Turns out my girl is for real, and the pull between us is anything but imaginary.
