Exalted on his throne, head over all things - His, all power, and authority, and dominion - the kingdoms of nature and Providence under His supreme control - He makes all things subservient to the interests of His Church. Everything but His Church, - the glory of the earth and its riches, in his esteem, are worthless. Yea, men are given for her, and people for her life. The sacrifice of a world is little regarded, if necessary to secure her safety and promote her interests. The tide of human affairs, as it rolls tumultuously on, bears on its bosom the Church of Christ. He, who rides upon the whirlwind, and directs the storm, consults its safety, and that alone, The vast schemes and plans of earth Shall all be dashed and overwhelmed in ruin - and their wrecks be seen floating on the misty ocean of eternity; but the Church of Christ shall be borne triumphantly over every wave, and through every howling storm, until finished and perfected, it reposes in the eternal calm of Heaven's complacency.
