CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 158 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. The Open Book has seemed to be more of a myth then a real book. For decades it has been out of print and trying to find an original is difficult. So difficult that when I did find one in the basement of my favorite used books store I snatched it up not believing what I had found. But how could I just stash it on my bookshelf along with all the other great out-of-print books where no one else could enjoy it So I put my publishing skills to work and decided to make The Open Book available to all those who want the inside scoop on the tricks that gamblers, crooks, grafters and con men have used over the years and still use today. Oh, dont think that just because this book was published long ago that whats inside is not useful. In fact, if one were so inclined to be dishonest they would find lots of ways to part a fool from his money just like they did in the day. Fore Warned is Fore Armed. That is the motto of this book. Learn all about the little and big tricks of the trade that Officer Johnson learned from years on the beat. He had seen it all and wrote down for you the tricks these gamblers, crooks, grafters and con men used to befuddle the mind of the gullible public. Reading whats inside is like going through your attic, topics are loosely grouped together but there is so much in these groups that its hard to believe. I decided to keep it in its original format out of respect for history buffs and book collectors and...
