By Clay Lifto

Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Only A Soldier Understands Book 4: Vietnam . Clay Lifto knows what it s like to be a soldier. In Book 4 of Only a Soldier Understands, he branches out into a new phase of his military experience, past the Middle East, and into deployment.in Vietnam. In 38 short anecdotes, Clay explores not only the physical realities of deployment, but also the emotional and psychological growth and challenges that come from experiences ranging from being under fire from the enemy to discovering a disheartening need for dental work. Money management, a last visit home, a girlfriend, R R in Australia, homesickness, and fear and panic in combat are all discussed with Clay s trademark warmth and candor. The topic of Vietnam vets horrible homecoming is a particularly important piece of Book 4. As Clay s stories bring back memories of your own experience, each anecdote ends with a series of thought-provoking questions designed to allow reflection on your personal journey. The Only a Soldier Understands series is for the new recruit, the career soldier, and the veteran. It s for anyone who...
