

A Police Organizational Model for Crime Reduction

By Ph D Rachel Boba, MS Roberto Santos

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 272 x 210 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This guidebook presents a new and comprehensive organizational model for the institutionalization of effective crime reduction strategies into police agencies, called the Stratified Model of Problem Solving, Analysis, and Accountability (i.e., Stratified Model), along with the specific mechanisms, practices, and products necessary to carry out the approach in any police agency, no matter the size or the crime and disorder levels. Consequently, the purpose of the guidebook is to present the Stratified Model in a succinct and practical way in order to provide direction for institutionalizing effective crime reduction strategies and accountability. The goal is to discuss the applicability of the problem solving process and accountability procedures as well as present relevant analytical products that can immediately be used to systematically implement crime reduction strategies. Although any police leader will find this guide informative, it is mainly written for police managers and commanders who are seeking to improve the efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability of their agency s crime reduction efforts. It will also be most useful to those with an understanding of basic organizational change and leadership...
