Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is about a path, a path which commenced with the creation and will extend to the end of human life. The path through which you, as the best creature of God, should, step by step, approach the highest point of human values. The values created by the greatest men, those considered as top examples of God's creatures in the world. The uprights who, throughout the history, managed to convert every single moment of their life to great events, introducing themselves as the mythical figures available for us, proving that living like the righteous is not inaccessible. Have you ever pondered about the sort of way of life you should follow so that you reach the destination? How you should move in the maze of life in order to arrive at the lush orchards of life? What color should you add to your life so that the mist of life's dilemma would not darken it? What water should you pour in your jar so that you could saturate yourself and other thirsty passersby? In general, what horizons should you draw...
