Death and Life, December 10, 1871; The Trumpet of Patmos, December 17, 1871; The Day of Thanksgiving, March 3, 1872 It has been thought desirable to leave on record some of the more permanent thought connected with the successive stages of the remarkable crisis through which our country has passed during the last three months. Many other discourses may have expressed more directly the individual feelings of the preacher. In a large, mixed congregation, like that assembled in Westminster Abbey, it seemed more fitting to speak of the general topics which would remain after the immediate occasion had passed, but which from this occasion derived a force that could not otherwise have been attained.
