Hawthornes birthplace, the custom house where he began his Scarlet Letter, The House of the Seven Gables, the Roger Williams house, the Shattuck house and other witchcraft houses, the site of witchcraft jail, Gallows Hill on which nineteen witches were executed, the Court Houses, where the witchcraft records and pins are to be seen, the old First Meeting House built in 1634, the birthplace of Timothy Pickering, and the house in which Washington was entertained in 1789. The social and industrial life of early Salem will be studied among the historical relics, MSS. and portraits in the museum of the Essex Institute. At noon time the Pilgrims will be tendered a luncheon at Plnmmer Hall by the Essex Institute, and at 2 p. rn. a meeting will be held in Academy Hall. Hon. William C. Endicott, ex-Secretary of War, and other well-known men will be present. Rev. E. B. Wilson, President of the Institute, will preside and introduce the Hon. Robert S. Rantoul, who will address the Pilgrims on the significance of Salem in our national history. Short addresses will be made by Professor E. S. Morse and others, and then a visit will be paid to the Peabody Academy of Science, containing the relics of the East India Marine Society. The evening may be spent at Nahant, which has, perhaps, the finest rocks on the New England coast. By invitation of the Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, the Pilgrims will visit his beautiful grounds, and...
