By Henry Cary Shuttleworth

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 84 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Excerpt from Poems and Hymns This little volume is due in the first place to the desire of presenting in a more permanent form and for a wider appreciation the beautiful Christmas Verses Professor Shuttleworth issued to his friends annually from 1889 to 1898. The opportunity is taken of collecting all his other verses thought worthy of preservation. His output was very small, only a few pieces have been excluded, and the editor believes that in regard to all the exclusions, he would have the grateful acquiescence of the author. Christmas and Easter seem to have been an unfailing source of inspiration to Professor Shuttleworth. This is quite in accord with the splendid hopefulness which belonged to him to the last of his days. The Christmas Cards accordingly come first. The set is complete and the dates are appended. The friends of later years may thus have the pleasure of possessing the earlier cards, and the set will be rescued for all from the fate of loss which seems inevitably to befall the stray leaflet.
