

Alias J. J. Connington (Paperback)

By A W Stewart, J J Connington

Coachwhip Publications, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When he wrote this book, the late Professor A. W. Stewart had already retired from academic life after a long career during which he held various University posts in London, Glasgow, and elsewhere. His chemical research work included, among many other matters, the discovery of the Tesla-luminescence spectra which opened up a new field in spectroscopy, and the recognition of the class of isobaric atoms to which uranium-239, neptunium, and plutonium belong. In addition to a series of books on advanced chemistry, he wrote-under the pseudonym J. J. Connington-a scientific thriller, Nordenholt s Million, a financial novel, and numerous detective stories. The present volume of essays shows yet another aspect of his work. From the author: This is an escape book, intended to divert the reader for a short time from the troubles which daily engross us. It deals with a number of topics: a murder mystery in real life; the germs of the plots of some well-known novels; the curious problem of the Dumbuck crannog; the psychological illusions produced by certain drugs; various methods of getting easy money ; the value...
