

Academics the Kingdom Style Discipline (Paperback)

By Mr Isaac Akintaro

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . You know what you should do! You have read, you have heard, you have planned, you have strategised but why are you not doing it? Discipline is the answer. This book is a practical approach to getting done what you need to get done when it should be done and at the intensity required. In a distracted world, discipline is a force that allows the completion of ideas and allows us as young people to channel our time, energy and resources in fulfilment of God s plan for our lives. This book is for you whether you are at secondary, 6th form, university or any level you are in. In fact, this isn t just a book for academic success; discipline translates into all areas of your life. What makes this book special? Aside from the emphasis on practical application is the focus on the Kingdom. The Kingdom of God, how God thinks about self-discipline and other relating issues. His ways are above our ways, His thoughts above our thoughts and will hence only lead to us living above situations and...
