Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book provides extremely simple yet refreshing solutions to most of our national problems from unemployment to foreign policy. First, I listed some of our ills and societal, cultural and economic problems in the title article in the first chapter. You probably will cry and laugh at the same time. Fortunately most of our problems are not that difficult to remedy. All the fences, equipment and manpower will not keep illegal aliens away from our border but SEVERELY penalizing the employers will. If there are no jobs, they will not come. Nothing is simpler and more cost effective than this. Before we talk about a national health care plan, we have to start by cutting down our high medical care expenses (Chapter 2). When we tax or force small businesses to pay for the plan, we are creating more problems, such as unemployment. Taxing the rich excessively and continuously printing money will exacerbate more problems and does not resolve anything. They are the roots of our problems and not solutions. It could force the geese that lay the golden eggs to fly to another country. The better the incentives for them to invest here, the more jobs the rich and their organizations would create. We have to abandon some low-wage consumer products but enhance the ones that are competitive in the global market. A $20 wage can never compete with a $2 wage. You cannot survive with $2 per hour wages in the U.S. With the alternative of closing out all foreign trades, we may have to end up buying a toaster made in USA for $50! This would erode our living standard further. The tariff on Chinese tires does not gain...
