

The Great Composers

By Anna Comtesse De Brémont

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 264 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. An excerpt from the Authors PREFACE: IN endeavouring to compile these volumes, sacred to the memory of the dead, who, though fallen asleep, are living to-day in all the grandeur of their genius, I have approached a somewhat difficult task. I do so in all humbleness, feeling how little I am able to convey in words that which they have transmitted to posterity in their undying music. Still, in my poor endeavours, I may, perchance, bring some good to my fellow-mortals, by inducing them to contemplate the trials and struggles which these great musicians, singers, and composers have endured on their weary journey, buoyed up by the soul-inspiring strains of melody, battling against poverty and scepticism, yet loyally steadfast to their art. Perhaps, too, these pages may fall into the hands of the loiterer through life, and may arouse in him a hidden, inborn desire to throw frivolity to the winds and to secure a better and more lasting comfort. What is it that has often soothed the pillow of the dying The strain of some soft melody. What is it that has...
