Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Contrast, or a Prophet and a Forger In order to meet this charge, I devoted a separate Introduction to the explanation of my views about the honesty of the Fourth Evangelist, attempting to shew the difficulties that beset him in his endeavour to attain the truth, his method of overcoming them, and the probability that in many cases, where one might suppose him to be inventing facts dialogues, and discourses, he is not really inventing, but only incorporating apostolic traditions, perhaps derived from John the son of Zebedee, whose pen he considered himself to be.
