

Pride Is Not Vanity (Paperback)

By T M Lawley

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Author T. M. Lawley tells readers that Pride is Not Vanity in pro-active feminist story. Inspired by the desire to encourage transparency across a wide sector ranging from family dynamics, gender, media, mental illness, equality, diversity, church and politics; and to examine the role of the traditional and modern family, author T. M. Lawley pens an insightful and powerful allegory of Australian society. Pride is Not Vanity is a tale of the search for clarity in a place caught in the middle of a paradigm shift, a social transition between the traditional and historical, and the fruits of change and modernity. A fictional Australian country town tries to bridge the cultural divide, an act that symbolizes the growing pains of modern Australia. It continues to rely on the perspectives formed by church and politics, which are driven by the momentum of the past, as well as the relatively new and evolving concepts of feminism and the search for equality. It follows a family that experiences tensions and conflicting interpretations between personalities, which too often have effects lasting an entire lifetime,...
