

Searching for Normal (Paperback)

By Alison Neuman

Fireside Publications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Searching for Normal: A Memoir Following in the tradition of creative nonfiction, Alison Neuman details her life experience from the onset of a rare and painful illness at the age of three, recounting her personal journey as she comes to terms with an ever-shifting concept of normalcy. The disease, dermatomyositis, shaped her life in ways most could never imagine; a carefree childhood quickly morphed into a blur of ongoing hospitalizations, increasingly reduced mobility, and overwhelming fatigue and pain. But, amidst her constant battles with her health, Alison emerges as a champion. Searching for Normal will leave readers awed by Alison s perseverance and strength of character; her story serves as a reminder that normal lies in the eye of the beholder. Searching For Normal is a memoir about one woman s attempts to define herself according to her skills and talents and passions, rather than the outward symbols of what others might consider disabilities. Neuman relates the story of the physical challenges she s endured, but what shines through in this book-and what leaves the reader inspired and grateful-is her depth of...
