Sororities and Fraternities enhance and change lives. Each member represents Greek Life to communities. What message are YOU sending out? Through this workbook-journal, sorority and fraternity members begin to explore what being Greek means to them, clarify their values and reasons for joining this community, and learn as we begin to change ourselves, we change the stereotypical perceptions held by the non-Greek population. As a bestselling author and former counselor, she believes that writing your thoughts down is fundamental to changing them. Through writing, you begin to recognize patterns and transform longstanding and perhaps not so useful habits. You then can ask yourself why you make the choices you do. And then in turn question the faulty stories you carry around and create new ones, reinforcing good ideas and healthy alternatives. Journaling is ultimately the task of discovering and developing what you think and how you act. There could hardly be a more important personal goal, as individuals and as members of the Greek Community. Author Leisa Hunter Smith has served in Higher Education in the United States and Australia, with experience as a Student Counselor, Director of Career Services, Resident Advisor, Student Organization Coordinator, and as an Educational Advisor for United States Consulate, Melbourne. She has lectured and worked at the University of Tasmania, University of Technology Sydney, the University of Western Sydney, and Bond University. Lisa has also held alumni positions in Collegiate Relations, and on the Nomination and Scholarship Committees for her sorority, Delta Zeta. Leisa has been featured on the Today Show Australia, Sunrise, ABC TV, Channel 10, SBS, ABC Local and presented workshops on mental wellness,...
