University of Nebraska Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 248 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.7in. Gentile reader, and you, Jews, come too. Follow Sue William Silverman, a one-woman cultural mash-up, on her exploration of identity among the mishmash of American idols and ideals that confuse most of us, or should. Pat Boone is our first stop. Now a Tea Party darling, Boone once shone as a squeaky-clean pop music icon of normality, an antidote for Silvermans own confusing and dangerous home, where being a Jew in a Christian school wasnt easy, and being the daughter of the Anti-Boone was unspeakable. And yet somehow Silverman found her way, a gefilte fish swimming upstream, and found her voice, which in this searching, bracing, hilarious, and moving book tries to make sense of that most troubling American condition: belonging, but to what? Picking apricots on a kibbutz, tramping cross-country in a loathed Volkswagen camper, appearing in a made-for-television version of her own life: Silverman is a bobby-soxer, a baby boomer, a hippy, a lefty, and arebel with something to say to those of us, most of us, still wondering what to make of ourselves. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
