Welcome to the secluded mountain town of Havenwood Falls, home to sexy men, strong women, and neighbors who bite. Discover supernatural mystery, thrills, and romance in a place where everyone has a deep, dark, and often deadly secret. The sequel to Forget You Not, this full-length novel continues the story of Michaela and Xandru-because finding someone means you can lose them again. With her past memories mostly restored, Michaela Petran begins to pick up the pieces and resettle into life in Havenwood Falls. But resuming where she left off with the man she loves and the plans they d made is no simple matter. As sudden head of the family and leader of the moroi vampires, she faces an onslaught of unexpected obligations, making her feel like she has no choices in her own life. And even if she could have everything she wants, she can t help but fear it ll all be ripped away from her once again. For five years, Xandru Roca ached for Michaela to return, but never believed it would actually happen. Now that he has...
