Finding My Why: Ernie s Journey (Paperback)

By Mark Given and Don Greeson

Plan a Achievement, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Tale for Seekers About the Story Some people imagine conversations that might never actually take place, others have pretend conversations with their pets, and all of us have internal conversations with ourselves. But Ernie Goforth has conversations with imagined assistants, created to help him achieve his goal of finding his life s passion-or, in his words, his why. These imaginary assistants become very real to Ernie, though he wisely chooses to keep their constant presence a secret from others. Ernie and his unlikely muses endeavor to find personal answers by taking a road trip to Destiny City, and encounter along the route some outrageous characters who unwittingly offer relevant insights. At the end of his journey, Ernie not only realizes why he gets up in the morning, but discovers and profits from the discovery of his true passion. This is an entertaining little book offering a collection of insights first established by great philosophers, scholars, and leaders. About the Authors Mark Given and Don Greeson are two middle-aged guys who have experienced the ups and downs of business careers,...
