TOO MANY THINGS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Your favorite characters from Things Remembered are back along with the introduction of one exciting new character, and their lives are more complex and textured than ever. As they each struggle to find their way through life s ups and downs, this story will take you on a roller-coaster ride with them that s so full of twists and turns it will leave you breathless! Mona: Fresh off the heels of her recent engagement to RJ, and the discovery that her best friend, her father and her brother-in-law have all been unfaithful to the women they claimed to love, Mona struggles to balance this reality against her newfound happiness. Although RJ has never given her a reason to question his commitment, the recent family drama that has unfolded has caused her to look at love and relationships through a very different lens. She trusted these men in her life just about as much as she trusts her fiancée and yet, they let her down. As she forges ahead to sort things out, her anxiety seems to spiral out of control as her impending wedding day approaches. She wonders if her fearful heart even deserves a second chance at love and if she ll ever get past the point of pain and truly be happy. Freddie: Devastated by the recent discovery of his secret, year-long affair, Freddie s wife of sixteen years, files for an immediate separation and he finds himself living all alone. To make matters worse, his best friend is no longer speaking to him, and the anguish from the pain he s caused the people he loves most in the world begins to eat away at him....
