Death: Awakening to Life: Seeds Planted (Paperback)

By Christine Contini

Winterwolf Press, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Christine Contini (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . At the young age of thirty-seven, Christine Contini experienced a sudden cardiac death. Over forty minutes later, she returned from the other side, carrying the keys to unlock profound understanding and seemingly supernatural abilities. Dying allowed Christine to awaken to humanity's natural energetic potentials and pierce the veil between the physical and energetic worlds. She began working with the recently deceased, the dying, and those in comas. What she learned from these experiences formed her foundation of Energetics --a complete system of awareness, balance, and understanding. In Death: Awakening to Life, Seeds Planted, Christine takes us on a journey through life, death, and rebirth. She presents fascinating information about what happens after we die and describes, from first-hand experience, the many pitfalls that can entangle the dying and their loved ones during the death process. Christine also shares heartwarming stories about gifts from the dying and their successful journeys to the other side. These true accounts will captivate and inspire readers to question life and reality. Once we understand the fears and delusions surrounding death, unlimited possibilities of life...
