

Ouroboros (Paperback)

By Kevin Kauffmann

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Escape hit the streets, no one was really quite sure what it did. People would go on and on about how it would change life forever after the first dose; that it would give you everything you wanted, everything you imagined. Sometimes people are right. Sometimes they leave out the rest of the truth. Calling Escape a potent hallucinogen is an understatement: the designer drug is just the latest display of how badly the US government has lost the War on Drugs. However, that means nothing to Jeremy or kids just like him, teenagers and post-adolescents who live in a world that seems destined to betray them, to leave them to rot from the inside. For Jeremy, Escape seems like the golden ray of hope that everyone says it is. At first, he gets to use his imagination and create fantasy scenarios, false relationships, entire worlds while on the drug, but for him it only starts to prove what he had already known; that he just doesn't belong. For others like Marc, Escape is the last resort of desperate men....
