Alfred Music, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This method is written specifically to address the needs and learning styles of children. Beginning with rote learning, imitation, and echoing, students will play and perform familiar melodies, strum chords, perform duets and trios, sing, and accompany singers. The curriculum takes them through reading music notation, guitar tablature, and guitar chord diagrams--while traditional chords will be taught, they ll also explore the neck of the guitar with simple and exciting non-traditional moveable chord shapes. The method is organized into four levels, each with nine parts for a total of 36 lesson plans. Online resources include streaming video that corresponds to each lesson plan, downloadable MP3s that demonstrate every example and song in the book, and reproducible PDFs for student assessment. The method follows both state and national music education standards. Note: This student edition of Sound Innovations for Elementary Class Guitar is streamlined and relies on instruction from the teacher. It s critical for the teacher to own a copy of the Teacher Edition for effective instruction.
