The Lapp woman liked the strange gentlemen and their sweet snow, and she began from that time to call her boy Lappelil. I think Sampo a much better name, said the man, rather vexed. Sampo means riches, and I tell you, Mother, don't spoil the name! For, some time, Sampo will become the king of the Lapps, and reign over thousands of reindeer and fifty Lapp huts. Yes, but Lappelil sounds so pretty, said the woman. And she called the boy Lappelil, and the man called him Sampo. He was, however, not christened yet, for at that time there was no priest within a hundred miles. Next year we will go to the priest and let him christen the boy, the man used to say. But next year something came in the way, and the journey did not...
