Engineering economics is taught by Dean Walker since the departure of Professor Millis; Mr. McCarty has gone to the department of athletics and the freshman rhetoric classes are in charge of Mr. M. L. Hanley. SUMMER FIELD COURSE IN GEOLOGY. If eight students can be found who will take it, a field course in geology and mineralogy (5-hr. credit) will be given during the summer. The course will include the study of rock formations in Western Kansas and Eastern Colorado, and mining conditions at Leadville. The party will leave Lawrence June 11 and will stop at several places in Kansas, then go on to Denver. They will study and map the formations about Denver and in the Denver Basin. Then they will go to Colorado Springs and study the formations there in the same way. From here the...
