BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 42 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. For fiscal years 1977 through 2000, the federal government paid about 370 million to support former presidents and their families. As of June 2001, the offices of the five living former presidents ranged in size from 3, 300 to 5, 900 square feet. The General Services Administration (GSA) is authorized to provide each former president with suitable office space appropriately furnished and equipped at a location specified by the former president. The law does not, however, provide any guidance on the appropriate amount of space that is to be provided. For fiscal year 2000, GSAs rent charged to former President Bush was 144, 000, former President Carter 89, 283, former President Ford 105, 099, and former President Reagan 256, 671. Former President Clintons office was not finished until late August 2001. His annual rent payment to GSA for fiscal year 2002 is estimated to be about 354, 000. The federal government is paying the entire lease cost for all of the former presidents offices, according to GSA officials. The rental rates GSA has paid for former presidents offices are generally comparable...
