And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his Commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.--i John ii. 3, 4. WE have much enquiry concerning knowledge in these latter times. The sonnes of Adam are now as busie as ever himself was, about the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, making the boughs of it, and scrambling for the fruit: whilest, I fear, many are too unmindfull of the Tree of Life. And though there be now no Cherubims with their flaming swords, to fright men off from it; yet the way that leads to it seems to be solitary and untrodden, as if there were but few that had any mind to tast of the fruit of it. There be...
