The Use of Activities in the Elementary School: A Report of the First Annual Meeting of the National Council of Primary Education, Detroit, Mich;, February 22, 1916 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By National Council of Primary Education

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Use of Activities in the Elementary School: A Report of the First Annual Meeting of the National Council of Primary Education, Detroit, Mich;, February 22, 1916 Suggestions were given, as follows: Incorporate in your letter your purpose and plan of procedure, showing how you link the child s purpose with your Own; the motivation of each problem and the reaction of the children noted evaluate the results; include samples of children s work, such as letters, oral and written composition, handwork; snapshots of social situations, if these aid in clarifying your statements; cooperation Of other classes, individuals in the community and others; anything which will show gain in social efficiency. Many of the letters have proved interesting, showing, as they do, the teach er s grasp oi the situation, strong or weak. As the case may be, dependent upon her point or view, her mode of attack, and - vision. Some have presented the smaller and yet no less significant situation of the socialized recitation, report ing lessons in reading, language, literature, arithmetic, spelling, nature, etc., indicating the added gain...

READ ONLINE
[6.39 MB]

Reviews

Absolutely essential go through book. It can be rally fascinating throgh studying period of time. You wont truly feel monotony at at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for concerning in the event you question me).
-- Roberto Leannon

This sort of publication is everything and made me seeking forward and much more. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. I am easily could possibly get a delight of reading through a created pdf.
-- Quinton Balistreri