Arthur has vanished, or so his family thinks. If they only knew he was in the back garden, where he has been magically shrunk into the miniature world of the Minimoy. It is a world of danger and excitement, where Arthur, helped by the fiery Princess Selenia and her mischievous brother Betameche, has a difficult quest; he must rescue his grandfather, find lost treasure and save the kingdom of the Minimoy. But the answer to his quest lies deep within the garden at Necropolis, a forbidden city ruled by the evil wizard Maltazard. And to reach it, Arthur must cross a vast world of fierce battles and terrible monsters. And once you have found the forbidden city . . . will you ever return? This is the second book in the Minimoy series by the acclaimed writer and director Luc Besson. Both books are being made into a film, released in 2006.
