By Terri Hubbard Carle

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Like the story of Mary and Joseph; Hannah and Seth are expecting a baby any day. As luck would have it, Seth loses his job and cannot pay the rent. Their landlord has no sympathy; he tosses them out on the street on Christmas Eve. They have no family nearby and no money to travel back home to Texas. They are forced to sleep in their car. Hannah finds herself in labor and there is no gas to drive to the hospital. As the two pray, God speaks to them telling them to knock on the door of the house number 749 on that very road. It is their obedience that leads to one miracle after another that happens that night, all centered on this one small miracle baby.
