They don't know who she is. They don't know where she is or her destination. All they have is a phone connection. Every clue draws them closer to her rescue or pushes them to frustration. Within the next twelve hours, they must each make daring sacrifices and be tested to their limit. The clock is ticking, the odds are against them. Will they be able to find Mya? Based on a true story, this gripping novella will draw you into the world of human trafficking NGO work. When the action is over and the smoke fades, one question remains: What will YOU do?
