On June 5, 1998, the Department of Commerce issued a Statement of Policy entitled Management of Internet Names and Addresses ( the White Paper ) setting forth the Administrations policy for privatizing management of the domain name system in a pro-6 competitive manner that would also facilitate global participation. The White Paper called upon the private sector to create a new, not-for-profit corporation to assume responsibility, over time, for the management of certain aspects of the domain name system. The Department ultimately entered into agreements with ICANN, a non-profit corporation formed by the private sector, to undertake this transition. As described in the White Paper, the United States sought the assistance of the World Intellectual Property Organization ( WIPO ) to initiate a balanced and transparent international process to: 1 ) develop a set of recommendations for an approach to resolving trademark domain name disputes involving cyberpiracy; 2 ) develop recommendations for the protection of well-known marks in the generic TLDs; and 3 ) evaluate the effects of adding new TLDs and related dispute resolution procedures on domain name...
