Excerpt from History of Grants Under the Great Council for New England Course by Members of the Massachusetts Christian faith by violence and bloodshed. Columbus thought he had ascertained by calculation, that there remained but one hundred and fifty years from his time before the final catastrophe. My enterprise, said he, has accomplished simply that which the prophet Isaiah had predicted, - that, before the end of the world, the gospel should be preached upon all the earth, and the Holy City be restored to the church. Nearly ninety years of that remnant of time had expired, when, influenced by similar sentiments, Sir Humphrey Gilbert set forth on a similar errand. It was his intention to take possession at Newfoundland for the northern portion of the country, and at some point nearer Florida for the southern portion of the English claim; going first to Newfoundland to gain the advantage of a favorable season of the year, and the period when fishing vessels were most numerous at that station. The ships of different nations then engaged in that employment, were one hundred from Spain,...
