Brand New Book. Excerpt from Man, the Minister of God: A Sermon Delivered Before the Foreign Missionary Society of New-York and Brooklyn, April 15th, 1855 Blessed be the Lord my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight. The Christian religion is not the only religion which has obtained prevalency in the world. Though it be the only system which has truth for its nature and God for its author, there are other religions which dispute with it the empire of the world. There are Gods many and Lords many. Mohammedanism, Buddhism, and Brahmanism exert their sway, at this time, over hundreds of millions of the human family. It is one of those problems which often task the faith of the thoughtful, Why is it that the only religion which has been revealed from the one living and true God, now so long after that revelation was finished, is yet embraced only by a minority of the human species? With some of the more aged and extended forms of false religion we have become partially acquainted in our attempts to propagate the Christian faith. It is certain that they have attained to a great longevity, and accumulated prodigious power. Their roots are strong and deep. They become objects of interest to us, because of their antiquity. They deserve a profound investigation, not only that we may understand how best to conduct our warfare against them, but because we would know to what secret they owe their immense dominion. We call them folly, delusion, falsehood. Such we believe them to be....
