Yonder upon Gibbs Hill - is the chief lighthouse, a shapely tower of 130 feet in height, the hill itself being 245 feet above the sea. The light is visible, in good weather, thirty-three miles. The stranger floating over the white shoal of a coral reef for the first time will be wonder-struck by the marvelous clearness of the sea-water and the strange effect of deception as to the depth for objects which appear to reach nearly to the surface are found to be so deep that the vessel passes safely over them. The sunlight reaches many fathoms down upon this vast submarine plain, displaying every object clearly to the gaze as we glide swiftly along. And then the color, that beautiful bewildering green; just the shade that one catches in the gleam of an opal or the tint of malachite....
