Old-time Stories: Billy-goat Smith, Powell River Co. Xmas, Mr. Dippie and Others (Paperback)

By Barbara Ann Lambert

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Old-Time Stories is a collection of stories by old-timers in the Powell River area. Most are based on the West coast in the Powell River area, others in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Amusing tales based in the first half of the twentieth century about characters who survived and put their stamp on Canadian History. This book contains numerous photos from private collections, published for the first time. The lead story is about Billy-Goat Smith. Mystery surrounded Billy-Goat Smith, a hermit living on Powell Lake. Rumours swirled around this man: bank robber, arsonist, even murder! Readers are asked to solve this historical mystery! The Author explores his connection with the famous 1906 Stanford white murder in New York. Secrets are revealed about his colourful past. The shortest, but most interesting story is that of Squirrel soup Jones who lived near the Head of Powell Lake. Mr. Dippie, known as Dippie Dippie, lived in a tent for 40 years on a beach at Lund. He was an amazing artist who drew the tugboats and fishing boats that passed by his tent. Stories of old-time dancing and...
