But for the rest of the employees, they would get the increases just like their GS counterparts. KAKA Senator A. Mr. Grimes, as you know, S. 3013 covers all Fed-eral employees in the non-foreign areas who currently receive COLA. However, the Administrations proposal raises questions about who would be transitioned to locality pay and how they would be transitioned. Please list the groups of employees who would not be transitioned to locality pay under the Administra-tions proposal and detail what pay changes OPM would make for those workers. Mr. G. It is true, Mr. Chairman, that the way that the Ad-RIMES ministrations proposal was worded that we didnt call out each and every group and say exactly what would happen. There are a num-ber of different types of employees, for example, Senior Executives, that get COLA but dont get as a rule locality pay. The...
