Brand New Book. Excerpt from After Forty-Eight Years Fight American Cables Will Connect Nation With Brazil: James A. Scrymser s Efforts of Lifetime Are Successful; British Company Long Blocked Way; Victory Finally Is Won in a Contest Before South American Tribunal The two companies now have more than miles of cables and land wires under all-american ownership and control. The new cables between Buenos Ayres and Santos and Rio de Janeiro will add more miles of cables to their lines. In places the cables of the Central and South American Telegraph Company rest on the bottom of the Pacific Ocean at a depth of feet, and the land wires are strung over the Andes between Valparaiso and Buenos Ayres in place feet above sea level, making a total measurement of six miles from the bottom of the ocean to the top of the mountains. The value of American - owned cables to the government of the United States both in peace and in war would be difficult to overestimate. The American - owned cable to Cuba and the West Indies was of supreme importance to the United States during the war with Spain, and the Euro pean war has taught the world the immense value of strategic cables. At this time all cable despatches to Brazil from the United States over the English-owned lines, which must cross the Atlantic Ocean to the Azores or to England before being relayed, are subject to British censorship. Merchants in New York have great difficulty in getting despatches to German houses in Brazil, or had, until the Central and South American Cable Company arranged to...
