Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. An adult dark comedy novel set in the late 1960s- love, war, dope, the CIA. and Go-Go dancing commies. Distraught after witnessing police brutality during the 1968 Democratic convention, Nico, a privileged idealist from Chicago, rashly follows Ellis, her pacifist draft-resisting boyfriend to an idyllic commune in the mountains above Acapulco. The farm is run by Adam, a manchild cannabis evangelist cultivating the finest buds in the galaxy in time for the arrival of Alien Overlords. Enter deranged CIA spook Smith. He spots Nico and her friend Richard- a ringer for a young Che Guevara- buying supplies at a nearby village. Smith concludes that Che faked his own death and is holed up at the commune. To smoke El Comandante out of hiding, he conspires with a dirty cop to bust Nico and use her as bait. In the village jail, Nico befriends Tippie, a ditzzy hairdresser from Empire Louisiana dumped by her husband while on vacation. Sentenced to crochet bikinis to pay for crashing into a burro, Tippie chalks it up as, Mercury is in retrograde. After finagling their release,...
