Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Covering archaeology from a range of angles, incorporating history, major themes, theories and methods, Doing Archaeology provides a firm grounding for anyone interested in learning more about the discipline. Throughout the book, key information is accessibly presented and important questions are answered, including: * What is archaeology? * How did archaeology begin? * How can archaeology tell us about the past? * How can archaeology tell how people use space and the landscape? * How can we use the past to understand people? * How do archaeology and heritage interact? * What role does archaeology play in society today? * How do we practice archaeology? Drawing on the experiences of practising archaeologists, with engaging examples and studies from sites around the world, this book gives the reader a sense of what is it to study archaeology and be an archaeologist. An essential text for students studying A-Level archaeology, those considering or beginning a degree/foundation degree in archaeology, and those of all ages interested in volunteering or becoming involved in archaeological projects.
